

Digital Health Rewired – National Hall, Olympia – Wednesday 4 March 2020

Digital Transformation Theatre

0930 – 1000	Welcome Jon Hoeksma: CEO – Digital Health Intelligence “Delivering the Digital NHS” – in conversation with Matthew Gould: CEO - NHSX
1015 – 1045	“Leading the ICS revolution and move to population health management” Caroline Winfield: CEO – Berkshire West ICP Rebecca Clegg: chief finance officer – Berkshire West CCG
1115 – 1215	TBC
1230 - 1300	“Supporting local NHS organisations on digital transformation” Sarah Wilkinson: CEO – NHS Digital
1300 – 1400	Lunch
1400 – 1445	“The perils of data bias in the digital age” Caroline Criado-Perez OBE: journalist, campaigner and author of award-winning book, Invisible Women
1500 – 1515	“The benefits to patients of AI in mammography” Dr Sri Redlar: consultant radiologist – Princess Alexandra Hospital NHS Trust Dr Anjum Ahmed: global director ITS – Agfa Healthcare
1515 – 1530	“Delivering the primary care first agenda” Matt Neligan: director of primary care commissioning transformation – NHSE
1600 – 1615	“Nurturing and connecting innovation across the NHS and industry” Tara Donnelly: chief digital officer – NHSX
1615 – 1630	“TestCard – winners of Pitchfest 2019 – what happened next?” Andrew Botham: CSO – TestCard
1630 – 1715	Rewired 2020 Pitchfest final hosted by Tara Donnelly: chief digital officer - NHSX

REGISTER HERE

BOOK YOUR STAND

[please note that the programme is subject to change]

Digital Health Rewired – National Hall, Olympia – Wednesday 4 March 2020

Clinical Software Theatre

1030 – 1035	Welcome Chair – TBC
1035 – 1100	TBC
1115 – 1130	“Digi-physical healthcare in Sweden” Magnus Liungman: founder & CEO - Doctrin
1130 – 1145	TBC
1200 - 1230	“Key lessons and shared experiences from applying GDE blueprints” Paul Charnley: director of IT and information – Wirral Hospital Dr Gareth Thomas: group CCIO – Salford Royal NHSFT
1245 – 1300	“Essential insights from the arch collaborative on securing clinical and productivity benefits from EHR’s” Rachel Dunscombe: strategic advisor – KLAS International
1300 – 1315	“A suggested approach on future digital maturity measures for the NHS” Dr Kathryn Cresswell & Robyn Williams – University of Edinburgh
1315 – 1400	Lunch
1400 – 1445	TBC
1500 – 1515	“Getting ready to implement a first type of mental health EPR in England” Dr Nick Venters: CCIO – Leeds and York Partnership NHS Trust
1515 – 1530	“And now for something completely different – developing a collaborative procurement for a modular open platform mental health EPR” Ricky McKennon: CIO – South London & Maudsley NHSFT
1530 – 1545	“Digital engagement to prevent suicide” Bill Johnston: head of digital transformation – Berkshire Healthcare NHSFT
1615 – 1730	TBC

REGISTER HERE

BOOK YOUR STAND

[please note that the programme is subject to change]

Digital Health Rewired – National Hall, Olympia – Wednesday 4 March 2020

The CCIO and CIO Theatre

- | | |
|--------------------|---|
| 1015 – 1020 | Welcome
Mandy Griffin: CIO – Calderdale and Huddersfield NHSFT |
| 1020 – 1045 | “Meeting the challenge of getting more CCIO’s and CIO’s onto boards”
Dr Simon Eccles: CCIO – NHSX |
| 1100 – 1130 | “Meet the University College London Hospitals NHSFT’s epic clinical informatics leadership team”
Stephen Cone: CCIO; Wai Keong Wong : CRIO; Natasha Phillips: CHIO |
| 1200 - 1230 | “Key lessons and shared experiences from applying GDE blueprints”
Paul Charnley: director of IT and information – Wirral Hospital
Dr Gareth Thomas: group CCIO – Salford Royal NHSFT |
| 1245 – 1300 | “Essential insights from the arch collaborative on securing clinical and productivity benefits from EHRs”
Rachel Dunscombe: strategic advisor – KLAS International |
| 1300 – 1315 | “A suggested approach on future digital maturity measures for the NHS”
Dr Kathryn Cresswell & Robyn Williams – University of Edinburgh |
| 1315 – 1400 | Lunch |
| 1400 – 1445 | “Meet the Digital Health Award Winners 2019
Mandy Griffin, CIO- Calderdale and Huddersfield NHSFT
Natasha Phillips, CNIO - UCLH
Gareth Thomas, CCIO - Salford Hospital |
| 1515 – 1545 | “Developing a digital health community of physiotherapist”
Ewan McComiskie: health informatics lead, Chartered Society of Physiotherapists |
| 1530 – 1545 | “Developing computer aided risk scores for sepsis mortality at York”
Donald Richardson: medical director - York Teaching Hospitals NHSFT |
| 1615 – 1630 | “Managing digital through trust mergers and uncertainty”
Dilshan Arawawala: CCIO -Mid Essex Hospitals
Sam Neville: CNIO, - Mid Essex Hospital |

REGISTER HERE

BOOK YOUR STAND

[please note that the programme is subject to change]

Digital Health Rewired – National Hall, Olympia – Wednesday 4 March 2020

Shared Care Theatre

1030 – 1035	Welcome Chair - TBC
1035 – 1100	“LIVI-Boots: a new kind of eco-system partnership” Juliet Bauer: UK managing director – LIVI Richard Corbridge: CDIO – Boots UK Stephen Watkins: director of pharmacy and digital healthcare – Boots UK
1115 – 1145	“LHRCE 1 session: shared care in London – progress from OneLondon” Luke Readman: CIO – East London Health and Care Partnership Jonty Heaversedge: medical director for primary care and digital transformation - NHS England
1145 – 1200	“LHCRE session 2: building shared records on strong foundations across Thames Valley and Surrey” Julie Fisher: SRO – Thames Valley and Surrey LHCRE Partnership
1215 – 1230	“Realising the potential of personalised exercise prescriptions linked to Apple Watch” Carron Manning: co-founder – iPrescribe Exercise
1230 – 1245	“Moving routine diagnostics into the home” Dr Daniel Grant: medical director – Medichcks
1300 – 1400	Lunch
1400 – 1445	“Lessons from London's primary care accelerators” Dr Raj Patel: deputy medical director of primary care – NHS England
1515 – 1530	“Transforming end of life care in London, through Coordinate My Care” Prof Julia Riley: consultant in palliative medicine – Royal Marsden NHS Trust
1530 – 1545	“Pioneering digital primary care in the NHS” Dr Ross Dyer-Smith: GP partner – Hurley Group
1545 – 1630	TBC

REGISTER HERE

BOOK YOUR STAND

[please note that the programme is subject to change]

Digital Health Rewired – National Hall, Olympia – Wednesday 4 March 2020

AI & Analytics Theatre

1045 – 1050	Welcome Chair – TBC
1045 – 1100	“Brave new world. Where next on AI in the NHS?” Indra Joshi: clinical lead AI – NHSX
1100 – 1115	“Lessons from delivering AI-driven symptom checking at scale” Daniel Nathrath: co-founder – Ada Health
1145 – 1215	“International perspective on next steps on AI and analytics in health” Alex McCloud: head of healthcare initiative – InterSystems
1230 – 1245	“Applying AI to early detection of dementia” Sina Habibi: CEO – Cognetivity Neurosciences
1245 – 1300	“Using digital and data to improve delirium assessment and care” Dr Emma Vardy: associate CCIO – Salford Royal NHSFT
1300 – 1400	Lunch
1400 – 1445	TBC
1500 – 1515	“A new trust framework for introducing AI into clinical practice” Dr Haris Shuaib: senior physicist in magnetic resonance – Guys and St Thomas' NHS Trust
1515 – 1530	“Developing and using paediatric early warning scores at Alder Hey” Geri Sefton: nurse practitioner critical care – Alder Hay Children's NHSFT Prof Enitan Carrol: chair of paediatric infection – University of Liverpool
1530 – 1630	TBC

REGISTER HERE

BOOK YOUR STAND

[please note that the programme is subject to change]

Digital Health Rewired – National Hall, Olympia – Wednesday 4 March 2020

Interoperability Theatre

1045 – 1050	Welcome Chair – TBC
1050 – 1100	“How can we truly 'bake in' interoperability across the NHS” Hadley Beeman: CTO – NHSX
1100 – 1115	“Blockchain as part of the solution to interoperability in health and care” Abdullah Albeyatti: CEO – Medical Chain
1200 – 1230	“Why Interoperability is a shared responsibility of everyone working in health and care” Frank Hester: founder – TPP
1300 – 1400	Lunch
1415 – 1430	“Supplier refresh and interoperability in primary care” Dr Massood Nazir: associate CCIO for primary care – NHSX
1445 – 1545	TBC
1600 – 1645	“Are we actually making progress on Interoperability?” Panel session with PRSB, techUK and InterOpen
1645 – 1730	TBC

REGISTER HERE

BOOK YOUR STAND

[please note that the programme is subject to change]

Digital Health Rewired – National Hall, Olympia – Wednesday 4 March 2020

Cloud and Mobile Theatre

1030 – 1035	Welcome Chair – TBC
1035 – 1045	“Essential lessons from the digital journey of London Ambulance” Ross Fullerton: director of strategy – London Ambulance Service
1045 – 1100	“The NHS's journey to the cloud has only just begun” Cleveland Henry: Director of Cloud - UKCloud Health
1130 - 1145	“Lessons from remote care at scale in the Netherlands” Daan Dohman: founder and CEO – Luscii
1130 - 1145	“Engage, entertain and educate patients” Peter Sommer: founder – Beagleboxx
1200 - 1245	TBC
1245 – 1300	“Digital first GP services reaching a tipping point” Wais Shaifta: CEO – PushDoctor
1300 – 1400	Lunch
1415 – 1430	“Putting sperm health screening onto your mobile phone” Morten Ulsted: co-founder – Exceed
1430 – 1445	“Why the next mobile health revolution will be based on medical grade mobile phone sensors,” Dr Chris Elliott: chief regulatory officer – Leman MicroDevices
1445 – 1500	“Digital epidemiology and using consumer mobile technology to support clinical research, including: Cloudy with a Chance of Pain” Prof Will Dixon – University of Manchester
1500 – 1730	TBC

REGISTER HERE

BOOK YOUR STAND

[please note that the programme is subject to change]